FOREWORD

In this yearbook we have tried to picture our High School--its students, faculty, activities, and campus--just as you saw it at the time that you were a part of it.

If you can take this book into your lap and relive this year at Roby High, then we feel that our work has been done satisfactorily.

To Mr. Dixon, whose daily life is an inspiration to all of us because he embodies the characteristics of a Christian gentleman--patience, kindness, generosity, integrity and loyalty--we gratefully dedicate the 1950 Tumbleweed.

A black and white photograph of a large group of students, likely a yearbook committee or a club, posing in a room. They are arranged in several rows, with some standing and some sitting. A sign in the center reads "PEER TOASTIES 1915-1916". The students are dressed in early 20th-century attire, including sweaters, blouses, and skirts. The background shows a simple room with a wall and a doorway.
